

"If you are overwhelmed or discouraged with your job search or struggling with your resume or interviewing, Maureen is refreshingly direct and insightful in getting to the heart of the matter. After working with Maureen, I was able to proudly present my resume and confidently interview with hiring decision makers." Director of IT, Manufacturing Company

"Maureen took the time to understand me and bring out my strengths so I could take the steps to realize my goals. She is skilled and compassionate and has very clear ethical standards." Clinical Social Worker

"Maureen's expertise in career coaching and interviewing is unparalleled and her genuine passion for helping others succeed is evident in her work. Maureen has been instrumental in my career development. She is dedicated, results-oriented and effective." Recent College Graduate

Maureen McDonald is a certified resume writer, expert in interviewing, and career coach who guides clients through the complete cycle of finding their next opportunities. She delights her clients with resume makeovers that build confidence for successful job searches. Her background includes outplacement counseling, executive search, and corporate HR roles. She holds a BS degree and is a graduate of the Gardner Institute. She holds numerous certifications including CPC, CPCC, CEIP, CPRW and PHR.

Maureen and Paula Asinof, founder of Yellow Brick Path, have worked together for several years. As with all providers, she was carefully screened to the company's professional standards for expertise and service delivery. Maureen receives accolades from her clients for her work and for the difference that she has made in their careers and in their lives.

- Don't have a resume?
- Don't have a resume that works?
- Rusty interviewing skills?
- Not sure how to play the game?
- Cat got your tongue?

If you are doing your best but no one is calling you back and you are wondering why, perhaps you are not putting your best foot forward.

We help you organize your work history and education, showcase your talents and accomplishments, and display this in an attractive, professional resume. We design your document for modern resume processing systems.

Our interview coaching helps you build confidence to speak concisely and professionally whether in formal or informal settings. We help you navigate the complexities and mine fields of today's interviewing battle field.

I've Got an Interview Tomorrow!
We provide emergency service to get you through.

New Grad Package
We build resumes that showcase your education, leadership experience, and potential value rather than your part-time, in-school employment. Package includes a resume, cover letter, follow up/thank you letter and 1 session of interview preparation.

Professional Package
Her Most Popular Offering
We create resumes that "speak" to your target audience and focus on the future and your potential contribution so that readers will engage with you at a glance. Package includes 2 face-to-face (or phone) meetings, a high-impact resume, cover letter, and interview preparation designed for professionals and managers.

Internal Promotions
Internal promotions are competitive! Yes, you need a top notch resume and great interviewing skills. We can prepare you to be at the top of your game!

Follow Up Coaching
Additional guidance is available in 1 hour increments in-person, by phone or email

Comprehensive Outplacement Services
Outplacement services by reputable firms are generally only available if they are employer provided. Maureen creates quality custom outplacement programs for individuals. Program includes career coaching, career assessment, resume development, interview preparation, job search planning, and follow up.